

2021 Worth County Fair Queen Contest Release/Consent Form

Please read the following and sign:

- I understand that if selected as the Worth County Fair Queen I will be expected to be available to assist with as many scheduled activities during the remainder of the 2021 Worth County Fair, June 16-20, 2021.
- I will be expected to represent the Worth County Fair at the Iowa State Fair Queen Pageant in Des Moines, August 11-14, 2021.
- If I were to be crowned the 2021 Iowa State Fair Queen, I would be expected to represent the Iowa State Fair August 12-22, 2021 and any other duties following the Iowa State Fair that the State Fair Board deems necessary.
- I will be expected to represent the Worth County Fair at various events during the 2021-2022 reign, including community parades throughout the county, any fund raising and will attend the 2022 Worth County Fair to crown the new queen and help her through her first day of duties.
- I have never been married and/or have never had children.
- I am at least 16 years of age and not more than 21 years old by August 19, 2021.
- I reside in Worth County or an adjoining county, but have the majority of my activities in Worth County.
- I am an active member of my community thru school programs, church, 4-H, etc.

Eligibility is not limited to a 4-H membership.

- As a contestant and if crowned queen, I will dress appropriately, with dresses/skirts that are at least knee high in length(nothing shorter), and dress modestly with dresses or tops that cover up and are not low cut. Shorts will not be worn. Jeans with shirt and boots will be appropriate for livestock shows. REMEMBER YOU ARE A QUEEN-DRESS LIKE ONE!
- I will not consume alcohol or use tobacco products under the legal age. If I am found to, I will forfeit my crown, sash, and monies and award them to the Worth County Fair Princess.
- If I am unable to fulfill the duties of Worth County Fair Queen, I will notify the Queen Contest Coordinator and return the crown, sash, and monies awarded, so that the Worth County Fair Princess can assume all duties of Queen from that point on. As set forth by the Iowa State Fair rules, the Worth County Fair Princess shall then be entitled to the honors of Worth County Fair Queen, and keep the sash, crown and assume the duties for queen.
